

WOMAN'S BACKACHE

The back is the mainspring of woman's organism. It quickly calls attention to trouble by aching. It tells, with other symptoms, such as nervousness, headache, pains in the joints, weight in the lower part of the body, that a woman's feminine organism needs immediate attention.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

Mrs. Will Young, of 6 Columbia Ave., Rockland, Me., says: "I was troubled for a long time with dreadful backaches and a pain in my side, and was miserable in every way. I doctored until I was discouraged and thought I would never get well. I read what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for others and decided to try it; after taking three bottles I can truly say that I never felt so well in my life."

Mrs. Augustus Lyon, of East Earl, Pa., writes to Mrs. Pinkham: "I had very severe backaches, and pressing-down pains. I could not sleep, and had no appetite. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me and made me feel like a new woman."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration.

IDEAS FOR JAPANESE TEA.

New Form of Entertainment Can Be Made Very Enjoyable.

The invitations to a Japanese tea received by some out-of-town folk recently were undecipherable until some one thought to hold them in front of a mirror, and then they proved to have been written backward.

The guests were asked to wear kimono, and some of the toilets were works of art.

One of the most striking had a yellow skirt embroidered around the bottom with a dragon design done in coarse black rope floss.

Over it was worn a black kimono applique with dragons and birds cut out of yellow cloth and pasted on. The kimono had yellow facings and the sash was black.

The rooms in which the guests were received were lighted with Japanese lanterns, which were strung from corner to corner of the apartment and festooned in the center of the ceiling with one large lantern. The refreshments consisted of rice served with chopsticks, oriental preserves, rice cakes, tea, etc.

The Tea Apron. I think the tea apron has come to stay. The clever woman has learned that no article of apparel imparts such a dainty, homey, domestic and altogether lovable air to the wearer as the little tea apron, and the clever hostess at afternoon teas, informal veranda affairs and the "welsh rarebit" repast in the late evening, is rarely seen without one of these fascinating little aprons.

The wild rose tea apron can be embroidered in shadow work or with the solid or half-solid embroidery, done in wild rose shades of embroidery cotton or silk. The forget-me-not apron is especially dainty, and the design is very easy to work. The natural shades of forget-me-nots, blue and green, should be used for the design.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

Truth. Many a truth is spoken in jest because the speaker is afraid he might get knocked down if he didn't speak it that way.

HATS FOR THE CHILDREN.

Many Models from Which Selections May Be Made.

A combination of two or three shades in the matter of children's hats is an important feature of the moment. A very popular alliance is that of "frambiose" and fawn, in the form of two large satin choux loosely put together, which are placed exactly in front of the mushroom-shaped hat.

Another trimming consists of thick "cable cord" fashioned of twists of wide satin ribbon in three different tones, which are passed around the crowns of the hats and terminate in a large Turk's head knot, catching an ostrich or marabout plume.

For the tiny nursery people nothing is prettier than a soft, white, hairy felt, finished with a hem of white satin and a ruche of the same, the center of which is punctuated at intervals with market bunches of pink-tipped field daisies.

Muscles of the Moth. As many as 4,061 muscles have been counted in the body of a moth.

clocks," he said. "And grandmother's taste rules in jewelry. So we have paradox—that the novelties in new jewelry are all old-fashioned styles. Grandmother had good taste."

The clerk held up a silver neck chain.

"It's a good example of the whole fashion," he said. "It's hand-wrought, you see. That means that the maker had a chance to express his individuality, and that no two designs need be alike. Here's another—scarabs, you see, of amethyst, topaz and jade, all on one chain. And here's a chain of jet beads, unpolished."

"I don't know whether these velvet collarettes, mounted with solid gold buckles, are grandmother style or not, but they are so pretty they deserve to be."

"These garnet bracelets, though, might have come straight from an old-time strong box. Here's a beauty, this chain bracelet of large amethysts in gold settings. Amethysts will be great favorites among the stones, and bracelets will be as popular as ever. There is a great chance for the jeweler artist in making old-fashioned silver bracelets."

"The jeweler with artistic instincts must have taken a good deal of satisfaction in making silver card cases, too—like grandmother-used-to-carry. This shows exquisite engraving. These purses made of silver are old style, also."

Then the dealer drew out a tray of cameos. He seemed to take a satisfaction in looking at them and handling them.

"Did I say those other things were old-fashioned?" he asked. "Well, what do you think of this coral cameo? It is of the style in vogue in England 200 years ago. There are cameos of all sizes and degrees of beauty—but they're my hobby, and I'll stop."

"Anyway, the belt buckles are almost as charming. This large gold one with one large stone is perhaps the type. The buckles are mounted with some semi-precious stone, such as topaz. I shouldn't forget to mention the lapis lazuli among the new settings. It is defined as 'an alumnous mineral of rich blue color.' 'St. Elmo,' a novel, made it popular; and it has a color which pleases the lovers of the antique-in-appearance."

"Spanish and Oriental styles are to appear again, and there will be some Egyptian designs. More coral will be seen this year than before."—Kansas City Star.

DOLL THAT CHILDREN LIKE.

Home-Made Article Is Frequently the Most Popular.

It often happens that a little inexpensive or home-made toy will please a child much more than something that we may buy in a shop and pay a good price for, and the doll from which this sketch was made ranked far above many of the other and more valuable possessions of its juvenile owner. It can be easily made out of any odd piece of material that we may happen to have by us. It is cut out in two pieces, one to form the back and one the front, and stitched together at the edges and well stuffed with cotton wool. Two blue beads form the eyes and the lines of the face are worked on the cloth in colored silks. The hair consists of a small piece of soft fur sewn on at the back of the head, and four beads sewn on down the front suggested buttons. The apron is made separately and ties round the waist. The side view shows the thickness the doll should be when completed, and about seven inches in height is a good size in which it may be made, and, of course, it may be dressed in any style liked.

Hol for the Cutaway Coat.

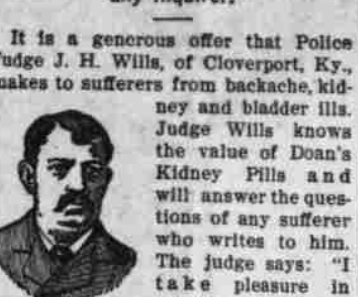

All hall to the cutaway coat! Nothing is newer than this style of wrap at present, nor is there any other in vogue likely to prove a formidable rival. The latest models are cut into deep points at the lower edge, sometimes in just four, at back, front and sides, respectively, while others are bordered with deep points. It will be the easiest matter to transform a tight-fitting half or three-quarter old-fashioned coat into a smart up-to-date wrap by simply cutting the lower edge into points and then inserting a smart-looking waistcoat and adding cuffs of some pretty contrasting material. The cuffs should be cut star-shaped on outer edge.

Have Right to Admire Beauty.

There are some very pretty women who don't understand the law of the road with regard to handsome faces. Nature and custom agree in conceding to all males the right of at least two distinct looks at every comely female countenance, without any infringement of courtesy or the sentiment of respect.—Oliver Wendell Holmes.

HER CHOICE OF DEMISE.

Pathetic Thought of Little Girl Who Had Lost Playmate.

Mary had for neighbor a small playmate, a much-loved and attractive boy. The little lad rushed across the street one day, throwing back a glance at his mother. At that instant a trolley car swept around the corner and the resulting tragedy threw the town into mourning. Each family wept as though its own son had been lost. Mary was utterly disconsolate and, little as she had previously known of death, realized in a childish way the added horror of this one. In her convulsive grief, and while her father and mother sat with sobs in their throats and tears overflowing, Mary straightened up and sobbed:

"Mother, when I die I hope it will be of a disease and not of a damage!"

ECZEMA FOR 55 YEARS.

Suffered Torments from Birth—In Frightful Condition—Got No Help Until Cuticura Cured Him.

"I had an itching, tormenting eczema, ever since I came into the world, and I am now a man 55 years old. I tried all kinds of medicines I heard of, but found no relief. I was truly in a frightful condition. At last I broke out all over with red and white boils, which kept growing until they were as big as walnuts, causing great pain and misery, but I kept from scratching as well as I could. I was so run down that I could hardly do my work. I used Cuticura Soap, Ointment, Resolvent, and Pills for about eight months, and I can truthfully say I am cured. Hale Bordwell, Tipton, Ia., Aug. 17, 1907."

"I cheerfully endorse the above testimonial. It is the truth. I know Mr. Bordwell and know the condition he was in. Nelson R. Burnett, Tipton, Ia."

IMMIGRATION FROM SOUTH EXPECTED

U. S. FARMERS ARE RECOGNIZING SPLENDID OPPORTUNITIES OFFERED BY WESTERN CANADA.

St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 9, 1908.—Present indications are that the Canadian Northwest will draw an exceptionally heavy movement of new settlers from the United States this year. It should surpass the banner record for 1907. This is not only based on the fact that the Americans have come to realize generally that the Canadian Northwest offers splendid opportunities, but also because the railroads have awakened to the fact and are offering rates to the Canadian Northwest which are exceptionally favorable.

The lines which lead to St. Paul from the east and south are offering homeseekers' rates to the Canadian Northwest this year which are on a parity with those in existence to the southwest for a couple of seasons.

These rates can be obtained from any agent of the Canadian government, who will be pleased to give all information possible regarding those districts which offer the greatest inducements to settlers. The weather throughout Western Canada has been remarkably good this year. A telegram from the winter wheat belt of Southern Alberta dated at Cardston, Alberta, January 29th, says:

"This winter up to January 25 was nothing short of a marvel, in fact, it was the finest anyone can remember for twenty-five years though there have been others nearly as good. The days were fine, sunny and warm with light frosts at night. Overcoats and gloves, etc., were discarded by most people in the day time. There was so little frost in the ground that post holes could be dug without any trouble after the first inch was broken through. Winter wheat remained fresh and green although there has been no snow since the September storm. If there is an early spring, winter wheat should gain a great start."

Amongst the reports of the yield of last year the following extracts are taken:

H. Howe, of Magrath, Alta., writing on November, 1907, says: "I have 70 acres in crop, 50 acres of wheat and seven acres of oats. My average yield of oats was 35 bushels to the acre, and of wheat 45 bushels. The value to me was $35 per acre."

J. F. Haycock, of Magrath, writes in November: "I had 65 acres in winter wheat, which went 60 bushels to the acre; oats averaged 80 bushels. I also had 12 tons of hay worth $10 per ton. I got 600 bushels of potatoes from three acres of land; I got eight tons per acre from five acres of sugar beet."

J. F. Bradshaw, of Magrath, had 1,020 acres of winter wheat last year which averaged 29½ bushels to the acre. The value of his farm products per acre was: Wheat, $31.60; oats, $11.20 and barley, $25.15.

Bowie, Texas, April 19, 1907. Dr. C. F. Simmons, San Antonio, Texas. Dear Sir:—I purchased a farm and two lots in your Atascosa County ranch from Mr. Farrington, your agent at Alford, Texas.

Several of my friends became interested and wanted me to go and look at the ranch, and I have just returned from an investigation of it. I spent two nights and one day on the ranch, and went over as much of it as we could while there, and I am entirely satisfied with my purchase. I found the land as good as recommended. It is the largest single body of good land, so far as I could see, with the least amount of waste land that I was ever on.

With best wishes, I am Yours truly, J. H. MESSER.

Dr. Simmons will sell you a truck farm of from 10 to 640 acres in the garden spot of Texas, and two town lots for $210—payable $10 a month without interest. Write today for literature, views of the ranch and name of nearest agent.
